Name and Type of Event: Event Title: Ragging Awareness Week
Organized by: Anti Ragging Cell, PPSU

No. of participants: 1511

Attendee: Members of Anti Ragging Cell, Students of PPSU

Venue: PPSU Auditorium

Event Outline: The Ragging Awareness Week for the students of P P Savani University was scheduled on during 9th – 13th January, 2023 at P P Savani University. On 13th January 2023, A Special Session was organised for Ragging Awareness. Session inauguration started with a prayer song and lamp lightning followed by a short but very interesting and important presentation by Shri Sunil Kumar, DY. COMDT, 97 RAF, on anti-ragging.

The session was organized with the objective of sensitizing them about the anti ragging rule. The event spanned 1 hour, consisting of taking the pledge by students, Definition of Ragging, Its related Punishments and Act of Anti Ragging.

The videos covered ragging types, legal aspects, reposting channels, and interactive discussions. The mentoring session on anti-ragging for first-year BTech students successfully conveyed the institution's dedication to creating a secure and respectful environment for all students. By raising awareness about the legal, institutional, and policy aspects of ragging prevention, the session contributed to fostering a culture of empathy, respect, and responsibility within the campus community.

The event is intended to make the students aware of the anti-ragging rules and make a pledge to not get involved in any kind of ragging activity. All promised that they won't indulge in Ragging or any form of violent behaviour and will contribute in making P P Savani University as “Ragging Free” university. The pledge has several motives:

- Ensuring student safety and well-being
- Promoting a Healthy academic atmosphere
- Fostering respect and dignity
- Preventing bullying and harassment
- Creating awareness and legal compliance
- Building trust and community
- Empowerment and long-term change
