

UNIVERSITY SPORTS POLICY

Sport is an integral part of social development that needs to be encouraged. At P P Savani University, sports or any activity leading to physically active life style are considered important components of overall personality development. We encourage staff and students to participate in physical activities and sports, as we firmly believe in its benefits.

Our aim is to produce young men and women who are physically active and who play with good sportsmanship and are competitive every time they step onto the field. We intend to teach our students to be committed to their team and take responsibility for their actions. In order to bring the awareness amongst the students we intend to draw "University Sports Policy".
